

Paso Robles High School Drama Department

April 8, 2010

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release:

Git ready for some singin', dancin' and romancin'. The Paso Robles High School Drama Department is proud to present our 2010 Spring Musical Production of Seven Brides for Seven Brothers.

Based on the Academy Award-Winning 1954 MGM film by Stanley Donen, Seven Brides for Seven Brothers is a wonderful, lovin', kissin' musical about seven stolen sweeties and their shotgun weddings with songs by Johnny Mercer and Gene DePaul.

Milly, a young woman in the Wild West must tame her new husband's six lumberjack brothers in order to marry them off. The brothers kidnap six women from the neighboring town to be their brides. An avalanche keeps them stuck in the mountains for the winter. Milly's marriage is in trouble until spring melts the snow and love blooms all around.

With the creative team of Director, Cynthia Anthony, Musical Director John Laird and Choreographer, Jennifer Bedrosian, Seven Brides for Seven Brothers promises a rip-roaring good time.. It will be presented for the public on Friday, May 7th, Saturday May 8th, Thursday, May 13th, Friday, May 14th, and Saturday, May 15th at 7:30 pm, with one matinee performances on Saturday, May 15th at 2:00 pm.

All shows are at the Paso Robles High School Activity Center, 801 Niblick Drive in Paso Robles. Student admission is $10.00, General Admission is $12.00. This is a very popular event. To be assured a seat, reserve your tickets now!
